THE BRILLIANT FLORAL BALL, as given in Georgetown the other evening, at the Assembly Union Booms, was certainly one of the happiest statistic of the season. The young Misses and Mas-ters, decked in fine dresses, were fairly radiant with ters, decked in fine dresses, were fairly radiant with happiness on this joyous occasion, while the parents and guardians of the young folics essented to participate in the festival with as much zest as the young indies and youngenits. The frestivities passed off in a meanor highly creditable to the taste and judgment of Mr. Goodall, the danning master, and reflects great credit on this gentleman's already well-known rejutation as an experienced instructor in fashionable dancing. This floral remien will ever linger upon the memories of the young people, as one of the happiest recollections of past pleasures. Next fall Mr. Goodall will resume his teaching, and his acadomy will open in a style totally eclipsing all previous successes.
